

Holiday for 2015

Istrian Riviera

Staying 7 nights at 4* Eden Hotel in Rovinj Croatia on half board basis.

This hotel appears to get very favourable reports and is situated within walking distance of the town. This is a very beautiful area with a fantastic coastline surrounded by lots of small islands.

We would hope to explore such places as Rovinj, Pula, the lovely old town and fashionable resort of Opatija, the old Roman town of Porec (UNESCO listed), perhaps visit some of the lovely islands and maybe a trip to Slovenia.

Aer Lingus flies weekly (Saturday) to Pula during holiday period. At the moment I am looking at departure on Saturday 26 Sept returning Sat 3 October. The flight leaves in the afternoon so plenty of time to get to Dublin

Cost similar to last year £950/990. Plus single supplement

Expressions of interest would greatly help me with the planning.

Needless to say no hotel or flight bookings have been made yet and date will depend on getting all these to coincide.

I will then be able to send you booking forms including itinerary

If you are interested please email me as soon as possible as I need approximate numbers.

Very Happy New Year
